THE GEM STUDIO for Fine Portraits

Family Groups, Wedding Pictures, Etc. Babies and Children's Pictures my specialty. All kinds of Photo Work and Enlarging done at reasonable prices.

The members of the Catholic Ladies' Sadality were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Al Ketter Thursday afternoon. Luncheon was served at 4 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Williams went to St. Louis Tuesday to meet their daughter, Mrs. Bryan Halter and little daughter, of Seattle, Wash., who will remain here for an extended visit.

Claude A. Eaton, cashier of a leading St. Louis bank, passed through Farmington Wednesday enroute to Cape Girardeau. He made a brief stop here and met with many of his old friends.

The apportionment of School Funds of St. Francois county for the present year appears in this issue of The Times. It is a most interesting and important compilation of figures, which should be carefully read and preserved by every taxpayer.

Herbert Olvis came in recently from Los Angeles, Calif., to take special training at the Carleton Vocational school. Mr. Olvis was a member of the 1st Division, 28th Infantry, served three years and six months in the World War. Prior to this time he served with the Canadian forces.

Mrs. Olvis and little daughter will join him in the near future.

"Grandpa" Brady passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Lowe, Nov. 2, at the ripe old age of 94. He was laid to rest in the Odd Fellow cemetery at Knob Lick Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. King, of the Farmington Presbyterian church conducted the funeral. He leaves three daughters and several grandchildren. We extend sympathy to the bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl London, of St. Louis, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. London. On Tuesday night the young folks of the Sugar Grove community gave a wicker roast in honor of Mrs. Carl London. She was until two months ago, Miss Marie Carleton, of St. Louis.

Carl is very popular among his many friends in Farmington and vicinity and his bride has won the esteem of all whom she has met.

The C. J. Westmeyer sale of pure-bred Hereford cattle, at his Springbrook farm, about two miles south of this city, last Saturday afternoon, was well attended, though bidding was rather backward and prices were unusually low. Considering the season, however, Mr. Westmeyer was fairly well satisfied with the result.

As he sees it, the greatest good must finally result to stock breeders, who secured one or more head of his offering, which should result in the improvement of stock in this community, as they were all fine specimens. If such result is accomplished, then he is satisfied. Col. Earl R. Baie, of Illinois, conducted the sale.

JUDGE PETER H. HUCK

Desires to express his thanks and appreciation to the voters who supported and helped him to be re-elected Circuit Judge.

AN APPRECIATION

I desire to extend my thanks and appreciation to those many good friends throughout St. Francois county for their support and vote for me for County Collector at last Tuesday's election. While I was defeated by a considerable vote, I am in no sense discouraged, when the entire vote is reviewed. That I was running against a particularly strong candidate, and for his second term, was also known to me as making my recent race difficult of success. But I have no sore spots, and desire now to state that I expect to be a candidate for Collector four years hence, and shall be grateful to my friends to bear that fact in mind.

Very truly yours,
George M. Mackley.

MY THANKS ARE DUE

I desire to thank those hundreds of Democratic friends who voted for me Tuesday, and whose assistance resulted in my re-election as Justice of the Peace. My heart goes out to them, and it shall always be my earnest hope and desire that I will be able to prove my fitness and worthiness for the place which their bestowal of party lines entitles me to fill for another term. Yours to faithful service,
J. P. Zolman.

GIBSON-McCLINTOCK

Julian Gibson and Miss Edna McClintock were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage Saturday, Nov. 4th, at 10 a. m. by Rev. G. C. Greenway. Both live near Farmington and are receiving congratulations from a host of friends.

MORTON'S BLOCK SALT, A MAJOR IMPROVEMENT IN AGRICULTURE

Put salt where stock can find it, you make automatic the important duty of salting. The salt lick is the animal's natural way of taking salt, as all experienced hunters know.

The salt in Morton's Blocks is the same pure crystal found in our famous natural salt. It's merely made convenient by being compressed under terrific pressure into blocks that withstand climatic conditions and remain economical to the end.

Keep a supply
always on hand.

Come to St. Louis

Balmy Autumn Weather is Ideal for Traveling— Make a Trip to St. Louis Now, by Rail or Motor

You live close enough to St. Louis to take advantage of the city's varied attractions at this time of the year. The magnificent chrysanthemum displays at Shaw's Garden are at their best about the middle of November. The theaters are open for the winter season. A rare Chinese jade collection is now on view at the Art Museum. The football season is on. Queer animals in the St. Louis Zoo are preparing for winter. Relics of the Mound Builders, curios of ancient Indian tribes, Peary's sled used in his dash to the North Pole are on display at the Jefferson Memorial. The gorgeous autumn Flower Show at the Coliseum will be open from November 7th to 12th.

Combine Business with Pleasure

You can combine business with pleasure on your visit, and do your fall and winter shopping under the most pleasant conditions. You can supply the needs of your entire family, your home and the automobile in St. Louis' foremost store—Famous-Barr Co. The 200 or more stores under one roof in this wonderful retail institution occupy a floor space of 17½ acres.

An International Exposition

Our buying organization covers all climes and gathers the newest and best from all quarters of the world. The wide assortments and complete stock of seasonable merchandise displayed in all departments make our store virtually an international exposition. There is something of special interest to every member of your family. It is your logical and economical shopping place.

Write for our free illustrated booklet "See St. Louis." It points out historical and interesting places, and tells how to get there.

Boy Scouts Are to Be Reorganized

Having received authority from the National Headquarters to organize a company of Boy Scouts in this community, and to act as Scout Master in this community,

In this movement, I hereby call a meeting of all boys eligible to membership in such an organization to meet at the Methodist Church, South, in this city, at 4 p. m. on Sunday, Nov. 15th, for the purpose of perfecting such an organization. All boys between the ages of 12 and 18 years are eligible for membership.

RHODA BOIES

Rhoda C. Boies died at the home of her niece, Mrs. J. W. McCarthy, in St. Louis, Nov. 2, 1922. She was the daughter of Mathew and Margaret Boies and was born in Ohio June 23, 1858. Her father died when she was a mere child, after which the mother and children came to Missouri. They lived at Lutesville for many years, but for the past twenty-seven years Rhoda had resided in Farmington. She was a member of the M. E. Church and was a beautiful Christian character. She was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her, and Farmington will greatly feel the loss of such a prominent citizen.

Funeral services were conducted at the M. E. Church by Rev. Courtney, assisted by Dr. Schuttler, Sunday afternoon. Interment in Masonic cemetery.

BABY SMITH

At 5 a. m. Monday, Nov. 6th, the Death Angel claimed the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith. Nellie was seven months old, a bright and loving little one who will be sadly missed by the grief-stricken family.

Funeral services were held at the home four miles north of town at 1 o'clock Tuesday by Rev. G. C. Greenway. Burial at Woodlawn cemetery.

To My Friends

My appreciation of the unstinted, unselfish support I received from my men and women friends last Tuesday cannot be expressed in words. Truly I am a proud man when I find that I have so many friends in St. Francois county.

Gratefully,

MARVIN W. CROWDER.

BAPTISTS CLOSE A SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL

The revival meeting that had been in progress at the Farmington Baptist church for two weeks closed on Sunday night, Nov. 5th, with a fine service and much interest.

Rev. G. C. Greenway, the brilliant and energetic pastor of the local church, conducted the services, assisted by M. W. Lamkin, of Meadville, Mo., an evangelistic singer of wide reputation. The series of meetings was organized and conducted on a sound, conservative basis, entirely free from excitement and demonstrative methods. Rev. Greenway's sermons were logical and convincing, and delivered with his characteristic energy. In spite of many other activities that were taking place in the community, the house was well filled at all services and on several nights it was not possible to accommodate all who wished to attend.

A very pleasant feature of the meeting was the singing conducted by Mr. Lamkin. In addition to the regular chorus of adult singers, he organized a group of junior singers that helped greatly in the services. The congregational singing was unusually enthusiastic and helpful. Mr. Lamkin is a soloist of unusual ability, with a pleasing voice of great volume. His solo selections were much enjoyed by the congregation.

In addition to a great spiritual uplift of the Baptist congregation, the meeting resulted in fifty additions to the church, some forty of whom received baptism. The entire outlook of the church has been broadened and some important forward steps will be undertaken in the near future. Rev. Greenway's few months in Farmington have demonstrated his ability as a hustling and efficient pastor, and the meeting just closed has shown that he has rare ability as an evangelist.

The Baptist congregation sincerely appreciate the attendance and co-operation of the good people of the other churches during the meeting, and hope that all who attended may have received rich blessings.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING SCHOOL NOTES

E. J. Littleton, of the sub-district office of Poplar Bluff, visited the school last week and was well pleased with the work, also Mr. Luellen, district project supervisor, was delighted with the good work being accomplished.

On Friday last the student body was addressed by Dr. Schuttler regarding the election.

Veteran students held judging contests in connection with the Royal Poultry Association at Kansas City. All students have been given a chance to make the team. Although they had a late start, they are making wonderful progress.

There were fifteen enrollments during the past month, totaling 114 students.

Students' pay has been increased from $80 to $90, and it has been confidently reported that they will be receiving $100 in the near future, which will put them on a basis with other vocational schools in Missouri.

W. B. Baldwin, formerly of 104th Infantry, and Mike Pottretos, of the Rainbow Division, registered Nov. 6.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Christian Church

Bro. Bailey's health is improving, but he will not be able to preach for us Sunday. Bible school Christian Endeavor and prayer meeting service will be held as usual, and we hope that our pastor can fill his pulpit on Nov. 19, and we urge a full attendance to welcome him back to service. Board of Deacons.

Baptist Church

Services next Sunday morning as usual.

Sunday school at 9:30 and preaching service at 11 o'clock. Morning subject: "A Timely Exploitation."

NOTICE

Missouri University Alumni and Former Students

All St. Francois county, Missouri University alumni and former students are requested to meet at the Y. M. C. A. in Flat River, Saturday night, Nov. 18, at 7:30, for the purpose of organizing a St. Francois County Alumni Association. Many of the counties in the state are already organized. It is hoped that a large attendance will be secured at this meeting so that a live association will be organized in St. Francois county.

Soil Terracing Demonstration
There will be a soil terracing demonstration on the farm of J. L. Farland, near Loughboro, Tuesday.

Nov. 14. A frame to use with a carpenter's level will be made in the morning. After this is made, contour lines will be run and then the plowing and grading will start. The demonstration will be in full swing by 2 p. m. All interested in learning the simple, inexpensive and effective way of stopping and preventing soil washing, are invited to attend.
County Agent.
